Docket # 98N-1038, "Irradiation in the Production, Processing and handling of Food"

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in regard to the issue of irradiated food labeling. I strongly feel that any food or consumable item including fruits, vegetables and processed foods that contain irradiated food ingredients should have a label that lets the consumer know. We must have a choice as to whether or not we want our bodies contaminated with radioactive substances. If that freedom is taken away what point is there of having 'The Constitution?' People must have a choice.

Sincerely,

Diana M. Cook
